

The “Future” Question About Your Prayer Life

With the spirit of an explorer you ask, "Where do I want to go in prayer?" This is where you dream about your prayer life. When you're not rushed or distracted, explore the following questions about your “dream” prayer life. Write out your answers in a journal or on this worksheet. As you do, let the Holy Spirit coach you to pray.

What words would describe your “dream” prayer life?

How would you like to feel about your prayer life?

What outcomes or results would your “dream” prayer life produce?

If you woke up tomorrow and had your “dream” prayer life, what difference would that make for you?

How would your “dream” prayer life impact your walk with God?

What dreams might God have for your prayer life?